Get informed early

We strongly suggest that you research the exchange programs as early as possible (about 1,5 years prior to the planned stay abroad) to avoid any troubles in meeting the deadline. It is your responsibility to check the partner university's websites to make sure that you will be able to realistically pursue your academic goals there. You can find reports from former exchange students and other information materials on the International Office's website as well as the Student Portal. Additional short-notice calls for applications for study exchange or scholarship programs, as well as information sessions, mandatory group advising and similar events will also be published on the IO's website.

Who can apply?

University of Freiburg students from all disciplines - with the exception of medicine/dentistry - can apply. Please be aware of restrictions that might occur in all fields of study. Registration at the partner university is usually possible for undergraduate programs, while access to (post-)graduate classes might be enabled individually. The academic year in Australia/New Zealand starts in February/March and ends around November/December.

The application

Students wishing to participate in the Freiburg Global Exchange programs must be enrolled in a degree-seeking study program at the University of Freiburg at the time of the application and for the entirety of the stay abroad. Please note that within the Freiburg Global Exchange, you typically apply for the respective region and not for a specific university. On the required preference list, you will indicate which universities you would like to attend, accompanied by a brief explanatory statement. Your preferences will be considered in the selection process, however, an appropriate placement cannot be guaranteed.

The application must be submitted to the International Office and must include all of the below listed documents. All documents must be submitted in English (see below for exceptions). Official application forms can be found on the International Office website. Please complete the application on a computer and submit one paper copy of each document, one-sided prints only. Do not use folders, transparent plastic sleeves, paper-clips, staples or any other type of binding.
